

At the Gathering Place . . .

Our first fruit trees

THE FIRST fruit trees at The Gathering Place have been donated to our neighborhood by a lovely young civic-spirited couple, Tony and Rea Warrecker, owners of Vista Tree Service, Inc.

Tony brought in five of his men to plant the trees—apples, plums, peaches, apricot, avocados, and fig.

The entire Warrecker brood came again Saturday morning to help scatter around the area the truckload of wood chips that Tony brought in.

A wonderful aroma filled the air.

Come the holidays, The Gathering Place will be the place to meet neighbors on the Mesa!

Soon, the Friday night conversation groups and Saturday night performances on a redwood platform begin.

Think fall holiday decor of pumpkins and corn and jack-o-lanterns and the winter holidays CELEBRATE LIGHTS with our own lighting ceremony of the three oaks trees at The Gathering Place.

Left: The generous donors: TONY and REA WARRECKER with daughters CHEYENNE, 2, and SEDONA, 5 months.

conversion of two high-voltage streetlight circuits to conventional low-voltage 120-volt circuits.

Work area is from Salida del Sol to approximately 400 feet west of Mesa Lane, and includes portions of Lighthouse Road, Meigs Road, Camino Calma, and Flora Vista Drive.

Jim notes that roads remain open during construction, although there may be lane closures.

“The contractor will be required to provide necessary provisions to ensure public safety and maintain traffic circulation,” he cites. In addition, he guarantees the pres-

VILLAGE HALL

Hayes Hall, Holy
1740 Cliff

Candidate

Co-sponsors: La Mesa Neighborhood

September 16 & 17

City Council Candidates – Wed., Sept. 16 •

6 p.m. Social/Gathering Time • 7 p.m. For

OPEN TO TH

Call 845